C Com Digital: The Indian pioneers of revolutionizing technology of "Artificial Intelligence"

Tell us about C Com Digital and what is your firm all about?

C Com Digital (Creative Communications) is a full-service Techno Digital Marketing Agency in Mumbai. We cater to the entire spectrum of digital marketing services for B2B and B2C customers. We essentially focus on the digital publicity of brands by integrating Content Curation & Creation, influencer marketing, digitally connected events, digital public relations and distri-

There are a massive number of digital agencies in India. The core philosophy of our existence explains the difference between C Com Digital from other agencies. Digital agencies started mushrooming since 2007. Prior to this, advertising and marketing companies were mainly divided in 2 types: mainline agencies (creative and media buying) and technological- digital marketing companies (SEO, SMO and Online Media). Since 2014, C Com Digital became a 360-degree Techno Digital Marketing Agency providing branding send-to-end solutions by acquiring top notch skills in Branding, Marketing, Communication Architecture, and Brand Positioning along with Website and E-Commerce Solutions, Mobile Apps Development, Social media Management, Online advertising and marketing on various online channels. This was a turning point.

C Com Digital's DNA is embedded in Marketing Communication through Technology. We work on simple marketing fundamentals, create impeccable communication and give a technological edge.

Any expansion plans?

Our expansion plans are to traverse on a path called "Video First with technological enablement" where consumers not only want to consume video, but also be a part of it. The preferred way to receive information and express ourselves is by shifting from text to video. In re-
